

LAURA IRENE KELLY

"LARRY"

Ottawa, Illinois

"Smiles, smiles, unending smiles, Come of them what may."

Here we have a girl who is always quiet--with a great lot to say. Having athletic tendencies, summer finds Laura spending her leisure hours on the tennis courts, while in winter ice skating forms her chief diversion. The advanced Domestic Science class claims her as a star pupil. She is also a member of the famous sewing class, whose motto should be---"Never sew today what you can possibly pin until tomorrow."
